Ryan Scott McClain was diagnosed with acute lymphoblastic leukemia (ALL) on February 10, 2000. During the Summer of 2000, Ryan received chemotherapy which made him ache and made it impossible for him to walk upstairs to go to bed. Ryan decided that when he returned to school at St. Vincent DePaul in the Fall of 2000, he would run cross-country, and he did.

Ryan finished every race in which he competed and, although he finished last, his teammates were always there to cheer him on at the finish. Some of Ryan's most prized possessions were the craft sticks that were handed out to the runners and showed their place of finish. They had a much greater significance to Ryan.

Ryan lost his battle with ALL on October 8, 2001. The Ryan Scott McClain Fund is a charitable memorial fund with the main purpose of providing a full one-year scholarship to a worthy student returning to St. Vincent DePaul Regional School. Deserving students have received scholarships totaling over $35,000.00 since creation of the Fund.
